Cedar Works

EMPLOYING EXPERTS IN CRAFTSMANSHIP AND CREATIVITY, Cedar Works has been a premier deck building specialist since 1990. Although based in Oakland County, Cedar Works has built outdoor living spaces throughout Michigan.

Owner Jamie Ruddy says one of the keys to his success is complete transparency when it comes to communication with every client. His main objective is to provide excellent customer service all while staying ahead of the latest trends in design, materials, and building.

“Our team is committed to providing our customers with quality decks, designs, and workmanship,” he says. “Throughout the entire process, we are here to provide you with the highest levels of quality, reliability, attention to detail, and professionalism.”

Ruddy is a custom deck builder and lives in Commerce Township with his wife and two children. He is very involved in the community and gives back in many ways. He takes pride in providing free estimates and can help design a custom deck to meet your needs and desires. He continues to personally oversee every project, from initial consultation to the final cleanup.

Cedar Works specializes in designing and building decks from Trex®, composite decks, and cedar decks, in addition to other outdoor living spaces.

“Our crew has over 25 years of experience working with deck materials and deck railings, including aluminum railings, glass railings, PVC, and wood railings. We work with all types of decking materials, including pressure-treated wood, Western red cedar, Trex®, composite, and Ipe,” says Ruddy, who earned his degree in building construction management from Michigan State University.

For more than two decades, Cedar Works has been a leader in the industry and maintains an excellent reputation. “Many families who have chosen Cedar Works as a contractor have referred our company to their friends and families. That speaks volumes about our company and our level of expertise,” Ruddy says.

Cedar Works is a fully licensed and insured Michigan deck builder and has been a certified TrexPro® Platinum Installer for many years. It services all areas of Michigan, including Oakland, Wayne, Livingston, Macomb, and Washtenaw counties.

TrexPro® Platinum is the highest level of praise awarded to independent contractors installing Trex® decking. These contractors are leaders in their markets, performing everything from simple to complex projects with Trex® using their full line of products.

Since Cedar Works take great pride in its work and reputation, it offers a five-year guarantee on all projects. Ruddy says he appreciates the large network of satisfied customers that Cedar Works has served over the years.

“We’re here to provide our customers the ultimate deck building experience, as well as combining and creating new designs for your backyard needs,” Ruddy says. “We only use premium materials and expert craftsmanship on each project we complete.”
